

Code of Ethics

Yes, The institution has a stated Code of Ethics to check malpractices and plagiarism in Research.

Institution is loyal to venture the highest standards of moral values in research and takes all potential measures against any malpractice and plagiarism in research work. All the faculty members, research scholars and students are advised to abstain for plagiarism in any form failing which strict disciplinary action leading to cancellation of registration of students and dismissal for services.

Code of Ethics for Research Followed by the Institution

- ❖ Research work should be submitted in the agreed layout. It is obligatory for the research student and superior to suggest the assertion certificate stating that the work carried out by them is original and references and citations are as per norms. The research article should be published in the UGC approved journals.
- ❖ The research papers submitted to the conferences conducted by the department are made to undergo double-blind, peer-review course of action in order to throw in to the quality control and to ascertain the uniqueness of the research.
- ❖ No students are not permitted to do their major projects with the same title.
- ❖ Students are given detailed guidelines on how to prepare the mini project as well as the major project report.
- ❖ Researchers are also given awareness about plagiarism and are directed to strictly avoid plagiarism in all aspects while writing research papers and thesis document.
- ❖ For the plagiarism check, institute strictly follows guidelines as per University and UGC norms.

N. Aravind

PRINCIPAL

Sree Ramu College of Arts & Science
N.M. Sungam, Vedesenthur (Po),
Pollachi (Tk) - 642 007.